How do I e-file a motion before an appeal?

Sometimes it is necessary to file a motion before an appeal is filed. These motions are called "preappeal" motions. For example, if you missed the deadline for filing an appeal, you must file a preappeal motion asking for permission to file a late appeal. If the court grants permission, you may file an appeal. If the court does not grant permission, you may not file an appeal.

My case was decided by the Compensation Review Board or by a federal judge—will the computer be able to find information about my case?

The computer only has access to information about cases that were decided by the Superior Court or the Appellate Court and cannot access information about cases that were decided by other courts or entities. You will manually enter all information about your case.

Am I required to pay a fee to resubmit a document that was returned?

No. If the clerk's office asks you to resubmit a document, you do not need to pay the filing fee a second time. Check the box indicating that no fee is required.

What if I have a fee waiver?

If you have a valid fee waiver, check the box indicating that you have a fee waiver, enter the name of the judge who granted the fee waiver and enter the date that the judge granted the fee waiver. At the end of the e-filing transaction, upload a copy of the fee waiver form signed by the trial judge. IF YOU UPLOAD AN INVALID FEE WAIVER OR FAIL TO PAY A REQUIRED FEE, YOUR DOCUMENT WILL BE RETURNED OR REJECTED.

What forms of payment can I use to pay a filing fee?

E-Filing payment can be made by credit card (MasterCard, Visa, American Express or Discover) or by electronic check. In addition to the court fee, you must pay a service fee of 2.2% for credit card transactions. The service fee is collected and retained by LEXISNEXIS, which processes credit card transactions.

[\[Top\]](#)

What information do I need to provide to the other parties in my case and how should I deliver it?

Immediately after you file any appellate document, you must deliver a copy of that document to all counsel of record in the case. Counsel of record includes all attorneys and self-represented parties. Delivery should be made electronically by sending the document to the last known e-mail address for each counsel of record, unless (1) you have received written notice from counsel of record that they will not accept service electronically, or (2) an exclusion from e-filing requirements has been granted to you or to the person to whom you are delivering the document or (3) the electronic filing requirements do not apply to you or to the person to whom you are delivering the document. In these instances, you may deliver the documents by hand or by mail.

For example, because the electronic filing requirements do not apply to self-represented parties at this time, when you file an appeal in a matter that includes self-represented parties, you must mail or hand deliver a copy of the appeal form to them. [\[Top\]](#)

How can I request service of documents by non-electronic delivery or mail?

You must notify the appellate clerk and all counsel of record in writing that you will not accept electronic service of documents.

How can I change my official e-mail or mailing address?

There are two ways to change your registered contact information: (1) log into E-Services and choose "Change of Information;" or (2) fill out a "Change of Information" form, JD-GC-10, and mail it to the address indicated on the form. The change process may take 24 hours or more.

When you are filing an appeal, you may provide updated contact information, but this does not constitute a formal change of address.

Am I required to deliver a copy of the appeal form to the Office of the Chief State's Attorney?

Immediately after you file a criminal or habeas appeal, you must deliver a copy of the appeal form to the Office of the Chief State's Attorney or to the Office of the Attorney General, as appropriate.

How do I upload a document?

1. Select "Browse" to access your documents.

Instructions: Your filing must be submitted in a PDF format. We recommend a searchable PDF format. If you used a word processor to create your PDF document, it is most likely a searchable document. If you created your PDF document by scanning an image, it will not be searchable unless your scanner is equipped with optical character recognition (OCR) software. #### Am I required to remove (redact) or omit personal identifying information from documents I file?

Yes. To protect your privacy and the privacy of others and to comply with court rules:

- Do not include personal identifying information in any document filed with the court unless you are required to by law or ordered by the court.
- Use caution when filing a document that contains sensitive personal, medical, or financial information, including:
  - Information about medical or psychiatric treatment, diagnosis or prognosis;
  - Individual financial information;
  - Employment history;
  - Home addresses, telephone numbers or cell phone numbers;
  - Proprietary or trade secret information.

If you are filing documents that have this type of sensitive information, think about whether the information is necessary and relevant to the case. You may also think about removing (redacting) any parts of the document that are not relevant and necessary.

The Appellate Clerk does not review documents to see if personal identifying information or any other sensitive personal, medical, or financial information is included. The filer is responsible for omitting or removing (redacting) personal identifying information that is not required by law or court order, or sensitive personal, medical, or financial information.

What is a preliminary paper or appeal document?

Preliminary papers are documents required by Practice Book § 63-4. They include a preliminary statement of issues, a docketing statement, and a certificate regarding the transcript order, a pre-argument conference form, a constitutionality notice and a sealing notice.

Appeal documents are other documents filed in connection with an appeal that are not required by Practice Book § 63-4 and do not constitute motions, preappeal motions, appearances or petitions. For example, a notice to the Appellate Clerk indicating that a party does not intend to file a brief, would be e-filed as a "Preliminary Paper or Appeal Document," rather than as a motion, petition or preappeal motion.

Can I file multiple filings in one transaction?

No. Each appeal, appearance, preliminary paper, appeal document, motion, petition, preappeal motion or opposition/response/withdrawal must be filed during a separate e-filing transaction so that the system can assign a number and provide a confirmation of filing. If you are filing a motion or petition that is accompanied by supporting documents, such as an affidavit, you may upload the supporting documents during the same e-filing transaction.

Should I upload supporting documents separately or should I file my motion or petition and all supporting documents in a single PDF document?

The Office of the Appellate Clerk recommends that you first upload your motion or petition as a single PDF document and that you then upload any supporting documents as separate PDF documents. For example, if you are filing a motion to dismiss accompanied by an affidavit and a memorandum of law, you would upload three separate PDF files during the same e-filing transaction: 1) the motion; 2) the affidavit; and 3) the memorandum of law.
